"Dangers Facing the Church"
Galatians 1:6-9

FROM THE MINISTER'S DESK:

THE GREAT FEAST – Luke 14:15-24

THE INVITATION IS EXTENDED. In ancient customs regarding large feasts, an announcement would be made weeks or even months in advance. Those invited were expected to send back a letter wither accepting or declining the invitation. Then, when the day of the feast arrived, and the feast was prepared, servants were sent to invite those who said they would come to make their way to the feast. The invitation is simple, solid and serious. "Come, All things are now ready."

THE INVITATION IS EVADED. The bible says "With one consent," sounds like they got together and conspired not to come to the feast. They made their excuses. Today people still make excuses for not coming to Jesus. "Too many hypocrites in the church" Hell will be full of them; "I am afraid I cannot live it"; "I just don't feel it"; "There's too much to give up"; "I have done too much wrong" "I'll come later, but not today." All of those are nothing but excuses.

THE INVITATION IS EXPANDED. A command was issued and carried out and the feast continued. We thank God for expanding this invitation. All kinds of people; people no one else wanted to associate were invited. Today, God still calls all. We have a "whosoever will" invitation. Today is the last day of our gospel meeting. This day, we will be at a great feast. Bro. Sapp will preach the unadulterated word of God. It will be a veritable "feast." "Come, for all things are now ready."
