PSALM 23

1 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

“OLD TESTAMENT WOMEN” -Gene Cooper

Athaliah. Most commentaries calls Athaliah, the daughter of King Ahab and Jezebel, citing 2 Kings 8:18 and 2 Chronicles 21:6 as support. Nevertheless, Athaliah was a wicked ruler in Judah. Of course, she wasn't the only female ruler to do evil, for Jezebel set the standard. Nor was she the only murderous ruler to sit on the throne of Judah or Israel. However, she stands alone as the only woman to sit on the throne of either Hebrew Kingdom. Upon learning of her son Ahaziah's death in office, Athaliah set about to kill off all possible heirs to the throne in the royal family. She succeeded with all but one-year old Joash, who was taken into protective custody and presented six years later as the rightful king of Judah. When Athaliah challenged this "treason", she was executed. For further study, notice 2 Kings 8:26; 11:1-20; 2 Chron. 22; 23; and 24:7.
